

GRANT'S ST. LOUIS

Footsteps of Ulysses S. Grant - Bus Tour

WHEN: Sunday, May 4, 2014, begins at 1:00 p.m.

WHERE: Tour starts at the Campbell House Museum Locust Street at Fifteenth Street, Downtown

Escorted tours of the Campbell House Museum, Eugene Field House and Chatillon-DeMenil Mansion are just a part of this all-inclusive tour of Grant's life in the City of St. Louis. Bus transportation between these historic homes follows a route back in time, to Ulysses Grant's days in Downtown and Soulard. Tour narration by Greg Wolk, author of Friend and Foe Alike: A Tour Guide to Missouri's Civil War.

The bus tour includes a discounted admission to all three historic homes. Each of the homes is open for visitors Sunday afternoon at standard admission prices. Cost to bus tours participants (3 historic home tours, transportation and narration) is just $35.00 per person.

An autographed copy of Wolk's book (a $28.95 value) can be purchased by tour participants for an additional $10.00.

Official event

Brought to you by:

Reserve your seat
at renegadestl.com
or call (314) 467-8588

