Civil War Trivia

During the Civil War, as many as 25,000 guerrilla fighters participated in “unconventional warfare.” Arson, scalping, and lynching were so prevalent along the Missouri-Kansas border, for example, that Union officials evacuated the residents of entire counties for the duration of the war.

Hi Beverly. This is Greg with Missouri's Civil War Heritage Foundation.

We are putting on what will be the third annual U S Grant Symposium, on July 23-24, 2016. Headquarters will be the Missouri Civil War Museum, with at least one event planned for the Ulysses S. Grant National Historic Site. Plans are still being made, but I can tell you that the principal speaker will be Frank Williams, President of the Ulysses S. Grant Association. When all is gelled, I expect we'll have other organized activities around St. Louis, such as we had when your group came down in 2014. Would you like to consider an organized trip for your group? We'll be
