Masthead

Civil War Trivia

When the American Civil War started, Confederate Robert E. Lee owned no slaves. Union general U.S. Grant did.
